

Friday 27th January 2017

Dear parents and carers,

Thursday 2nd March 2017 is World Book Day! As requested by the pupils of SEJ during their 'Share it with the Head' session, we will be marking the occasion by dressing up. This year marks the 30th anniversary of Where's Wally so to celebrate the occasion we are theming the dressing up around Where's Wally books.

Please feel free to base the costume around any one of the characters: Wally, Wenda, Odlaw, Wizard Whitebeard or Woof. Be as extravagant as you wish!

There will also be inspiring and engaging reading challenges and experiences happening in school throughout the day for all children. Reading is a core focus at South End this year, so this is an exciting event in the calendar for all of us. Please keep an eye out for photos on our social media pages on the day.

Many thanks for your continued support and we look forward to seeing our very own Where's Wally scene on 2nd March.

Mrs Lisa Gibbs

Assistant Headteacher

